Vins Rouges

France

Corsica

Clos Venturi, Jean-Marc Venturi, 2014 $100
Delicious. One is reminded of a Côte Rôtie. Le Sélect Bistro

Vallée de la Loire

Chinon Domaine de l'R, le Canal des Grands Pièces, 2015 $70
 Le Logis de la Bouchardière, Serge & Bruno Sourdais, 2015 $55
Fragrant red cherries on the nose. The palate give hints of pepper and spice behind the lovely juicy red and black fruits with stucture and ripe tannins. DM(92)
 Les Granges, Bernard Baudry, 2015 $70
 les Picasses, Jean-Maurice Raffault, 2015 $65 ✓
Sancerre La Moussière, Joseph Mellot, 2014 $150
Notes of sour cherry, blackberry and blackcurrant. Well-balanced on the palate with gorgeous volume, big structure and fine, silky tannins. LVC
 La Noue, Claude Riffault, 2014 $85
 Vincent Delaporte à Chavignol, 2014 $85

Bourgogne

Bourgogne, Jacques Girardin, 2015 $75
 Clos de la Perrière, Moulin aux Moines, 2014 $95
Fruity and bright, with earth and spice notes. this wine sees only 5-15% new wood, which helps maintain the purity of the grape and the essence of the terroir. LVC
 Cuvée Chapitre Suivant, René Bouvier, 2014 $65
Well composed and overall balanced, with better-than-average depth and length. John Szabo (winealign.com)
 Maison Roche de Bellene, Cuvée Reserve, Pinot Noir, 2014 $60
Nicely structured, with brisk acidity and fine, persistent tannins, the fruit is ripe with a fresh, tart edge that lingers on the finish. LVC
 Marchand-Tawse, Pinot Noir, 47°N, 2014 $110
Red and dark currant aromas laced with earth and a hint of florest floor. Good weight to the middle palate and great complexity. Allen Meadows

LE SÉLECT BISTRO – MARCH 2018

	Réserve du Bastion de l'Oratoire, Chanson Père & Fils, 2014	$60
	The wine is elegant, with sour cherry, mineral and spice. Unlike many wines at this price it's composed entirely of fruit from the Côte d'Or. Food-friendly. LVC
Côte Chalonnaise	Mercurey, 1er Cru, la Cailloute, Domaine Theulot-Juillot, 2014	$100
	Offers dark cherry and plum aromas wrapped in smoky incense and spice, with tangy cranberry and red plum flavours. LVC
	Mercurey, Château de Chamirey, 2014	$100
	A light herbal note but fully ripe. Good depth for a village, and already silky but layered. Fine texture, dry, fresh aftertaste. Impressive. 16/20 Jancis Robinson
	Montagny, 1er Cru, Henri de Villamont, 2014	$100
	Opens with complex aromas of buttered toast, yellow apple and plum, nectarine, lemon drop, and pineapple. It's bright and juicy on the palate with oaky overtones. LVC
	Rully, Domaine Jaeger-Defaix, 2015	$95
Côte de Nuits-Villages	Louis Max, 2014	$75
	Beautiful aromas of dark berry and spice. Medium to full body. Soft texture. WS(91)
	Maison Roche de Bellene, Vieilles Vignes, 2007	$75
	Showing gracefully maturing complexity of wild cherry, cranberry, plum, licorice and herbs. The finish is silky and smoky. LVC
Côte de Nuits	Chambolle-Musigny, 1er Cru, les Charmes, Joseph Faiveley, 2013	$330
	Classic Chambolle with floral and delicate flavour with silky tannins. LVC
	Chambolle-Musigny, Domaine Confuron-Cotetidot, 2014	$200
	Floral with underlying liquorice notes, minerality and complex spice. Mostly red berries. Medium weight, with a complex profile. Tim Atkin MW(92)
	Chambolle-Musigny, les Cras, Domaine Antonin Guyon, 2012	$200
	Chambolle-Musigny, 1er Cru, les Feusselottes, Pascal Marchand, 2012	$275

Organic & Biodynamic Wines

The practice of biodynamics in viticulture has become popular in recent years. The principles of biodynamics are based on a spiritual and practical philosophy called anthroposophy which is based on the understanding of the ecological, the energetic, and the spiritual in nature.
